

FIRE SAFETY IN RESIDENTIAL HALLS

Not Allowed in Residential Halls

Extension cords
Multi-plug/ Tri-tap adapters
Candles
George Foreman type grills
Hot plates
Toasters
Deep fryers
Multi headed lamp
Fog machine
Electric heater
Incense
Halogen lamps and bulbs
Three prong cheater plug
Coffee pot with hot plate
Air conditioners
Non-Fire treated curtains & flags

Allowed in Residential Halls

Power strips with breaker stating over-current protection
Multi-plug adapter with breaker stating over-current protection
Keurig style coffee maker
Microwaves (1,000 watts max)
Refrigerators (5 cu. ft. max)
Computer equipment
TV's
Battery operated candles
Fire treated curtains & flags  must have tags and documentation meeting NFPA 701*
All electrical devices must be UL Approved
All electrical devices must be plugged directly into wall outlet or power strip.

If you are not sure what's allowed, ask your Residential Life staff or consult Residential Life Housing Agreement